The United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, hereby contracts with you for the purchase of information and services of a confidential nature on the following terms and conditions:

1. For the purchase of such information and services, your compensation will be at the rate of $50.00 per day of service. No taxes will be withheld from this amount, and it will be your responsibility to report this income under existing Federal Income Laws and regulations. Each day in travel status or at your duty stations abroad will be considered a day of service.

2. You will be reimbursed by CIA for travel expenses incurred pursuant to travel directed or authorized by CIA at rates in accordance with rates established by Standardized Government Travel Regulations; except that during your period of service at your contemplated duty station or stations abroad, you will be reimbursed for your living expenses as follows:

(a) Direct reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket cost to you of adequate lodgings as approved by the Chief of Mission, including only rent of lodgings and the utilities incident thereto.

(b) Payment of $15.00 per day in lieu of subsistence.

calendar days of duty at the post. It will be the responsibility of your superior in his judgment to amend such rate within a maximum of $20.00 per day to cover any subsequent period of duty at the station so as to approximate your out-of-pocket disbursement for your living expenses.

3. You will be furnished operational funds to cover necessary expenses incident to the fulfillment of this contract. Such expenses will include, but are not limited to, travel in your assigned area in the performance of this contract, purchase of information and services, entertainment, and other necessary expenses incurred by you in the performance of this contract. All funds advanced or paid under this paragraph will be accounted for in full in accordance with regulations. Separate instructions will be furnished to you in connection with amounts which may be reimbursed and the type of accounting to be rendered. You are not authorized to make any commitments or disbursements for expenses other than your living and transportation without advance approval of the Chief of Mission.

4. Payments of the amount stipulated above will constitute payment in full for all such information and services purchased from you. Payments of all amounts to you under this contract will be made in accordance with your written directions and in a manner acceptable to CIA. Compensation payments shall be made in dollars to your account in the United States. It is contemplated that a portion of the payments due you under this contract will be made by your proposed cover. Such payments shall constitute advances against this contract and must be fully accounted for in accordance with the terms hereof. You are not authorized to draw more than $6,000.00 from your cover for such advances.

5. No annual or sick leave benefits will accrue to you under this contract.

6. You will be required to keep forever secret this contract and all information which you may obtain by reason thereof (unless released in writing by the Government from such obligation), with full knowledge that violation of such secrecy may subject you to criminal prosecution under the Espionage Act of 1917, as amended.
